find me a playdate

Find Me A Playdate is for mums looking to make new friends with other mums who share similar interests with similarly aged children who live locally.

Whether you are new to the area, want a new friend for your child or just want some company at the playground while your children run wild, we will connect you with like minded families and arrange playdates for you and your little ones.

Simply fill in the following details, hand to the play centre or nursery and we will be in touch. Alternatively you can email us or visit our facebook page.
